

Antitrust: Tar cancels fines for 28-day billing. WINDTRE statement to the international news agency Reuters

Rome, 13th July 2021

The TAR ruling acknowledges that WINDTRE's behavior was respectful of the regulations and that its commercial strategies and policies were adopted in full autonomy from its competitors. We have long been engaged in a process of consolidating the relationship of trust with consumers through increasingly competitive, transparent and clear choices. WINDTRE will continue in this direction.
